STORY IDEAS

Not sure what to write about? Use this list of topics to diagram a story wheel.

1. How did you get interested in hunting and the outdoors?
2. Who helped you with your hunting and outdoor experiences? How did they help you?
3. Do you enjoy the outdoors? Hunting? When did you realize this?
4. Tell me information about your firearm. Does it have any history?
5. How did you learn to shoot?
6. Why did you pick the area you hunted? Did you scout it beforehand? Tell us about your scouting trip.
7. On the Pathfinder Ranches, was this the first animal you have ever harvested? If not, how does the experience relate to your first animal?
8. Why did you want to hunt at Pathfinder Ranches? Do you know anyone that has hunter on the ranches before? Does your family have a hunting tradition?
9. Was your hunt easy? Or did you think you were "roughing it" when you hunted?
10. What was exciting about your hunt? Did you experience any thrill? Sadness? Nervousness? Appreciation? Disappointment? What feelings stick with you after your hunt was over?
11. Name all the animals that you saw at Pathfinder Ranches. What about unique habitats? Did you see any habitat, environments, or creatures living in the wild that surprised you?
12. What message will you share with your friends about hunting at Pathfinder Ranches? If you had to think of three words to describe your hunt, what would they be?
